FROM THE PASTOR

When you wake up in the morning, do you rise and shine or do you rise and whine? Some people rise and whine, like Winnie the Pooh does sometimes. Though the cuddly Pooh Bear seems happy most of the time, he does have his moments of self-pity. Do you wake up saying something you might expect Winnie the Pooh to say?

"Oh bother, here I am just a bear of little brains in this unfair world. My situation is surely worse than that of all the other creatures in the forest. They are all out having fun, and here I am with my head stuck in the honey jar. There's not much to be done for the fix I'm in. Oh, bother! Welcome to my pity party!"

After being used by God to bring revival to an entire city, Jonah should have been on a spiritual high. Instead, Jonah throws himself a real pity party. He spared no drama in displaying his misery, even asking God to end his life! "Just kill me now Lord!" Jonah 4:3

Listen to today's sermon for the answers to these questions: When does self pity come my way? Is it alright to invite God to my pity party? What should I do with self pity?

Your Pastor,
J. Matthew Nance
P.S. See you on Facebook

Join us on Saturday, February 27th from 10 am - 2 pm for CHILDREN'S MINISTRY DAY to make a difference in the lives of others. Sign up in the Church Foyer. Lunch will be provided. See the Children's Ministry Team (CMT) (Karen Smith, BJ Hall, Bethany Morris, Cheryl Nance, and Christy Ware, for more details.

Read It Again Bible Reading Sheets

I have received 14 completed January sheets. If you are like me, I'm still reading on January's schedule. Just remember that you can turn your sheets in through your Sunday School Class, in the Church Office or by placing them in the letter baskets on the Welcome Center in the front Foyer of the church. February's schedule is there for you to take at any time. There are 2 different schedules to choose from. If you are reading the Bible from Genesis through Revelation, the sheets are colored. If you are reading Old, New, Psalms & Proverbs every day, the sheets are white.

First Monday Night Monthly Prayer Meetings

Ten of us had a great time of prayer this month. But we would like to see our Chapel full of prayer warriors each first Monday of every month. Make your plans now to join us, Monday, March 1st, as we pray for our church and her ministries.
